

The Germans in Dobrudscha (Part 17)

The book listed below, containing 248 pages of information, is being translated chapter by chapter and posted as each chapter is completed. Part 1 gives you a summary of each of the 15 chapters in the “Contents” section. The words in the [square brackets] are those of the translator and are not found in the original text.

Translator: Allen E. Konrad
12 October, 2017

The Germans in Dobrudscha

along with a contribution to the history of the German migration in Eastern Europe

by Paul Traeger

With 73 illustrations in the text and tables
Stuttgart 1922
Foreign and Home Publishing Company
(Ausland und Heimat Verlags=Aktiengesellschaft)

Photo Gallery

Map of Dobrudscha

German Street in Cobadin

Village of Atmagea

Village of Malcoci

Village of Tariverde

Caramurat Main Street in Tatar Section of Village

German Section of Village

Romanian Home with White Walls in Background of German Street

Fachria Village Street

German Street in Palaz Mare Village

Mangeapunar Village Street

German Farmyard

Primitive Earth Houses used by Germans in Early Settlement Days

Romanian Farm Houses

German Colonist House in Ciucurova

In Caramurat

In Cobadin

Whitewashing a House

Church in Cogevalac

German Church in Cataloi

Tariverde Tavern on the Right

Child's Swing and a Spinning Wheel

German Farmer Woman at a Loom

Stacked Bed Pillows

Threshing with a Threshing Stone

Colonist of Fachria with her Child in a Placht

Young Ladies from Caramurat and Palas Mare

Young Ladies from Caramurat and Palas Mare

Colonist Women from Palas Mare

Girls Attending Caramurat German School

Colonist Funeral

German Colonists Wedding

Atmagea Choral Society

Colonists from a Younger Lutheran Colony

Colonists from an Older Catholic Colony

